

Comment Regarding Proceeding 17-108

Keep the existing net neutrality rules in place. As a small business, it's already difficult enough to compete with the larger corporations. To place an additional tax and burden on small business will result in less competition and more monopolies in this country. America was built on small business and creating rules to favor the few at the top and penalize those hard working American's at the bottom is the definition of corruption.

